

RADIANT HAIR

Dry, Brittle, Scraggy Hair
Made Soft—Fluffy—
Radiant—Abundant
by Parisian Sage.

Who does not love a beautiful head of hair? You may think it is a gift, that some women are born that way. The fact is, beautiful hair is largely a matter of cultivation, just as you would water the plants in your garden and fertilize the soil.

Parisian Sage is a scientific preparation which the hair and scalp readily absorb. It removes dandruff at once, it puts a stop to itching scalp and makes your whole head feel better—as if your hair had had a square meal.

One application will astonish you—it will double the beauty of your hair. It is used daily for a week you will be simply delighted with the result—you will want to tell all your friends that you have discovered Parisian Sage. You should see the number of enthusiastic letters we receive from delighted users.

All doubts settled at one stroke—your money back if you want it.

Parisian Sage is a tea-colored liquid—not sticky or greasy—delicately perfumed, that comes in a fifty cent bottle. The "Girl with the Auburn Hair" on the package. Get a bottle today—always keep it where you can use it daily.

Sold by The Lee & Osmond Co., and at all drug and toilet counters everywhere.

Best Laxative for the Aged.
Old men and women feel the need of a laxative more than young folks, but it must be safe and harmless and one which will not irritate the bowels. Dr. King's New Life Pills are especially good for the aged, for they act promptly and easily. Price 50c. Recommended by Lee & Osmond Co.

STATE'S MOST FAMOUS SOLDIER

Dedication of Equestrian Statue to General Sedgwick at Gettysburg Next Thursday—Local Grand Army Post
Named After Him—Description of Monument.

The equestrian statue erected by Connecticut upon the battlefield of Gettysburg to the memory of Major General John Sedgwick will be dedicated Thursday, June 13, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon. The dedicatory exercises will consist of an opening prayer by Rev. William F. Hilton, an address by Rev. Rockwell Harmon Potter, unveiling of the monument by Dr. James T. Sedgwick, nephew of General Sedgwick; a historical sketch by Dwight C. Kilbourne, address by H. K. Bush-Brown, the sculptor, a sketch of the Sixth Army Corps by Col. Andrew Cowan; delivery of the monument to the State of Connecticut by General Charles H. Pine, chairman of the monument commission; acceptance of the monument by the State of Connecticut by ex-Governor Dwight C. Kilbourne, East Litchfield, Secretary, Governor Simeon E. Baldwin, Charles F. Lindsey, Meriden; Rev. Rockwell H. Potter, Hartford; and Elizabeth J. Steele, Litchfield.

The members of the commission are Charles H. Pine, Ansonia; Dwight C. Kilbourne, East Litchfield, Secretary, Governor Simeon E. Baldwin, Charles F. Lindsey, Meriden; Rev. Rockwell H. Potter, Hartford; and Elizabeth J. Steele, Litchfield.

Of Interest to Norwich.
To the veterans of the Grand Army post in Norwich more than the usual interest will be attached to the event as it will further distinguish the man whom they selected to honor when they named the post, Sedgwick, No. 1, the first G. A. R. post in the state.

Description of Monument.
The monument is one of the finest of the more than 600 already erected there. It is on the very spot occupied by the general as his headquarters during the battle, and represents him and his horse looking at the battle in the wheelfield half a mile or more distant. In front of this monument are three of many of the monuments of the regiments of his corps that fought there—the Second Rhode Island, Seventh and Thirty-Seventh Massachusetts, and the Ninth Maine.

The monument itself consists of a granite pedestal of Stony Creek granite, twelve feet by five and six feet high, of two stones set on a platform base 28 by 22 feet, surrounded by a granite coping. The figure is of heroic size and a very good likeness of the general. The horse is modeled after one the general used on the field, "Handsome Joe." Both are represented as taking a very active interest in the battle.

FORECLOSURE GRANTED ON STONINGTON PROPERTY
B. F. Williams Secures Deed Against Industrial & Manufacturing Co.

In the superior court short calendar Friday morning here before Judge Williams, these matters were disposed of:

Foreclosure in the sum of $5,884.16 was granted in the case of B. F. Williams vs. The Industrial & Manufacturing Co. of New Britain and others, on three tracts of real estate, the first known as the Homestead place of the Nathaniel S. Noyes, near Mystic; the second known as the Neck farm; and the third a tract of woodland in Stonington. The original note and mortgage given November 22, 1907, was for $13,500, and was claimed at $4,848.14 when the suit was brought. The note was made payable 5 years after date. July 1 was made the limit for redemption with succeeding 60 days for the Noyes, N. H. & H. R. Co., Frank A. Davis, and Damase Boulets of Killingly, who claim attachment liens on the premises.

Judgment for costs in favor of the defendant was granted in the case of John Donovan vs. Joseph D. Harris, as the plaintiff had withdrawn the action on May 15, 1912, in the slander suit he had brought against the defendant for $5,000 damages. The attorneys were C. W. Comstock for the plaintiff and R. M. Douglass for the defendant.

An allowance of $35 to defend was ordered in two cases in the divorce case of Bray vs. Bray.

An order was passed allowing the use of outstanding accounts in Leon A. Comstock and others vs. People's Coal Co. The bids are to be reported. There is about $500 in accounts.

The judge took the papers after hearing the arguments on the defendant's application to have all issues tried to jury—in Stephen N. Bond and others vs. Samuel T. Littlefield and others.

An argument of Semur was made in Abraham Herschowitz vs. City of New London, and the judge took the papers.

Charles L. Stewart, overseer for the Eastern Tribe of Pequot Indians (North Stonington branch), filed his annual report, which was allowed and approved and he was reappointed. The report showed that $111.38 had been spent in the year for members of the tribe and there was a cash balance of $2,032.22. There are 31 members of the tribe and besides the cash the inventory shows 600 acres of land estimated at $1,000 and three houses on reservation estimated at $200.

Assignments Made.
The trial of Annie Bashaw, guard, was held at the court house Thursday, but was resumed Tuesday. The other assignments made for next week:

Tuesday—Esther Smith, executrix, vs. Norwich & Western Traction Co. Wednesday—Charles F. Adams vs. John E. Noyes, Margaret Kenure vs.

OPPOSED DIOCESE DIVISION.
Judge Gardiner Greene Said It Would Not Be Wise Move.

In the Episcopal diocesan convention at New Haven this week on the question of division of the diocese, Judge Gardiner Greene of this city, who was elected the second lay delegate to the convention, was moving the division of the diocese. He is quoted as saying that it was yet to be proved that the body of the church was divided. "I give those who favor the division to chance to show why it is for acting in good faith, but they are destroyers, and the Fairfield plan is utterly unfair," said Judge Greene.

Children's Day in Bozrah and Fitchville.
Children's day was celebrated at the Bozrah Center Congregational church on Sunday, June 8. The pastor, Rev. J. C. Young, preached to the children, and the singing of the choir was exceptionally fine. In the evening the body of the church was filled as was also the gallery. The Baptist church at Fitchville postponed their Children's day service and attended in large numbers. On Sunday the congregation will return the compliment and will attend the Children's day observance at the Fitchville church. There were also quite a number of children in the service. The program was excellently given and the children did credit to those who trained them for the service.

Rev. J. C. Young Attended.
Rev. J. C. Young, pastor of the Bozrah Center Congregational church, attended the convention of the State Association of Congregational Ministers, held at Hartford Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and by concentrating local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Halls' Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Catarrh cure that is able to cure. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It is sent direct to the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.
